

All According To Script

Pre-set dialogues in Parshat Ki Tavo and in Jewish Life

*Becky Friedman for Torah in Motion,
August 31, 2023*

01

Scripts in Ki Tavo

Link to source sheet

Scripts in Ki Tavo

Mikra Bikurim

The monologue given when bringing the basket of first fruits to the Temple

Viduy Maaser

The speech made when separating the tithe in the third year

Bracha u'Klala

The blessings and curses read out on Mount Gerizim and Mount Ebal, with responses from the people

02

Other Scripts in Torah

Link to source sheet

Other Scripts in Torah

Chalitzah

The ritual when a man whose brother passed away with no children doesn't marry his widowed sister-in-law

Ben Sorer u'Moreh

The ritual for disciplining an egregiously wayward son

Eglah Arufah

The ritual when a body is found between towns and the killer is not known

Birkat Kohanim

The blessing that the Kohanim confer from God to the Jewish People

03

Scripts in Jewish Life Cycle

in modern practice

Marriage

Pre-set declaration when bestowing the ring

Pidyon HaBen

Redeeming the firstborn son

Brit Milah

The script followed at circumcision (and at baby namings)

Birkat HaGomel

The formula recited when someone survived a life-threatening experience

Scripts in Jewish Life Cycle

Nichum Aveilim

Comforting mourners with the traditional formula

„The individual does not invite sorrow; the latter strikes him hard and mercilessly. His immediate response is a dual one - subjective and objective. He reacts to disaster with everything he has at his command - thought and deed, feeling and action.”

—Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik

Avelut Yeshanah and Avelut Chadashah

The Seder Night and Haggadah

The Seder is the most ritual-heavy night of the Jewish year, with a very regimented and extensive “script” for the evening...

...which, near the beginning of “Maggid,” brings us back to Parshat Ki Tavo and the Mikra Bikurim

Questions?

Thank you to
Torah in Motion

Becky Friedman

CREDITS:

Slidesgo, Crest,

Flaticon

Freepik